CERTIFIED PRE-OWNED VEHICLE FAQ

What is a certified pre-owned Chrysler Brand vehicle?	^
A certified pre-owned Chrysler Brand vehicle may have had a prior owner but has since undergone a thorough inspection and safety review by a trained, authorized technician at a dealership.
Can you lease a certified pre-owned vehicle?	^
Dealerships do not offer lease programs for certified pre-owned Chrysler Brand vehicles, but you can arrange financing to assist with the cost of purchasing one.
What makes a vehicle certified pre-owned and not just 'used'?	^
A Certified Pre-Owned (CPO) vehicle can be considered a 'used Chrysler Brand vehicle', albeit one that comes with a guarantee from the manufacturer. However, when you opt for a CPO vehicle, such as a 'used Chrysler Pacifica', you are assured that it has been specifically selected to participate in the program and has been carefully inspected and certified to meet our high standards.
What are the advantages of a certified pre-owned Chrysler Brand vehicle?	^
Certified pre-owned vehicles are an affordable alternative to new vehicles, as they are guaranteed to be in good condition. They tend to be lightly used, with low mileage and very little wear.
Should I buy a used Chrysler Brand vehicle that isn't certified?	^
Choosing a certified pre-owned vehicle versus a used vehicle is a personal decision. Cars and minivans that don't pass the inspection process aren't eligible to be offered as certified pre-owned vehicles, so CPO vehicles offer convenience and peace of mind. Even after purchase, purchasers of CPO vehicles benefit from factory-backed limited warranty coverage and more.

What should you check when buying a certified pre-owned vehicle?	^
Make note of the parts of the vehicle that are covered by your warranty. Examine the vehicle history report to ensure you are comfortable with any reported incidents the vehicle may have encountered. Check your financing options and make sure you understand the terms of the agreement you are signing.
